

31st Annual Marketing And Merchandising Excellence Awards

Celebrating the Best of 2017

Friday, May 11, 2018

The Hilton Easton

Presented by the Sales and Marketing Council (SMC) of the Building Industry Association of Central Ohio (BIA), the Marketing And Merchandising Excellence (MAME) Awards program is dedicated to honoring the top achievers in new home sales and marketing from the previous year. Sales awards are presented to both builder sales representatives and Realtors. Marketing awards are presented to associate members as well as builders and Realtors. Typically more than 300 people attend this gala event – many of the attendees are builders who are there to support members of their sales staff receiving awards that evening. Promote your company to these members with a sponsorship and/or program advertising.
